LIVE, LIBERTY.

No. no. no. The die is east - see Sumter's battered wall, To arms! to arms! must are dear covery fall?
Shall bloody brigands pitch their tents
Beside Mount Vernon's grave?
Shall rattleanakes and policans Above our cities wave Shall Liberty berself be stain? Must we put on a southern chain? It never shall be so. CHORUS-Live, Freedom, live, etc.

True blood has flow'd where Anderson's brave Were starved and roasted in their forcess pent Around, ten thousand velling ficials, Their murderous cannon ply; Within, Columbia's noblest sous Half smothered, bleed and die But every purple drop that fell.
Shall fertalize its dusty cell,
And to an army grow.
Chorus-Live, Freed m. 1

Through every State from Ovegor Main The shrick of Liberty resounds against And every party, creed, and clied, Dissolving into one. Throw past dissension to the winds, And to the rescue run:
For we will raise the flag again,
Crush out the rebels, break the chair Or fall before the fee.
CHORUS—Live, Procedomont, etc.

TRAPPORS.

At the present juncture in our country's history, the following counter passage from Thomas Moore's "Lalla Rookh" is most appropriate:

Oh, for a tongue to curse the slave.

Whose treason like a deadly blight,
Comes o'er the councils of the brave. And blasts them in their hour of might: May life's unblessed cup for him, Be drogged with treacheries to the brim-With hopes that but allure to fly, With joys that vanish as he sips, Like Dead Sea fruits that t mpt the eye,

But turn to ashes on the lips! His country's curse, his children's shame, Outcast of virtue, peace and fame,
May he, at last, with lips of flame,
On the parch'd desert thirsting die,
While lakes that show in mockery nigh Are fading off untouched, untasted,
Like the once glorious hopes he blasted!
And when from earth his spirit flies,
Just Prophet, let the damn'd one dwell Full in the sight of paradise Beholding Heaven and feeling Hell!

By the returns made and published in the army register of 1859, it appeared that the total number of all the enrolled militia in the several States was 2,727,-486, of which number 1,629,000 are enrolled in the free States, and 1,068,000 in all the slave States. The number enrolled in the seven seceded S.ates was 350,000. We have 19,000,000 of inhabitants in the free States. The seceding States have about 2,700,000 whites, and H. C. Debasing the Coin.

It is now ascertained upon the most undoubted authority, that large quantities of silver coin, bearing the similitude of the coinage of the United States, are being daily struck off, and put into circulation. The public should be can ioned by the press in regard to his spurious almost instanter. coin, pending the action of the Government concerning it.
